

As Seen In:

Patioscapes

1 Design Unfolds Santa Barbara Designs unfolds a new selection of umbrellas and covers for 2006. The two-tiered hexagonal shape and architectural design of the Double Decker Paseo umbrella are meant to conjure castles. The square Riviera umbrella features a natural plantation-teak frame and stainless-steel fittings, and finally, the giraffe print umbrella adds a whimsical touch to outdoor living areas.
Circle 250

2 For The Birds Offer customers an inventive piece from the Pamela Worley Collection, a classically inspired line of high-end iron furniture. One of the company's best sellers, the Bird Table comes in a bronze finish and measures 13 inches wide by 24 inches high. The lightweight table weighs only 11½ pounds.
Circle 251

3 Cozy Conversation The Patio Embers firepit, by Aglo, offers both an outdoor conversational space and warmth on cool evenings. The firepit uses a 20-pound LP gas tank and features a battery-powered push-button electronic ignition. The unit is available with either a faux or real stone top and in a variety of shapes and finishes.
Circle 252

4 Award-Winning Style This Horizon deep-seating armchair, by Glester, won the Design Excellence Award at Chicago's 2005 Casual Furniture Show for the rattan/wicker/woven materials category. The armchair is part of the company's new modular deep-seating collection, and is constructed of a powder-coated aluminum frame covered with ebony-colored synthetic wicker.
Circle 253

5 Summer By The Sea Great American Woodies says historic colors bring a soft look to its new line, the Nantucket Historic Collection. The collection comes in Newport Blue, Creamy Yellow, Sage, Barn Red, Surf White and Earthbound Green. The pieces, meant to evoke a seaside summer, are constructed of alder, then primed and finished with a high-gloss, two-coat, water-based enamel. Included in the collection are an Adirondack chair, folding Adirondack chair, footrest, Adirondack rocker and side table.
Circle 254

To receive more information, complete the Reply Card found at page 18 or 94.

96 AQUA — MARCH 2006 www.aquamagazine.com

2 For The Birds Offer customers an inventive piece from the Pamela Worley Collection, a classically inspired line of high-end iron furniture. One of the company's best sellers, the Bird Table comes in a bronze finish and measures 13 inches wide by 24 inches high. The lightweight table weighs only 11½ pounds.

