(BW) The Pamela Worley E-mail this story 2006 Collection Lauded with Prestigious Design Award; High- End Furniture Company Receives Praise from Designers and Buyers Alike at the Collection Preview in Dallas

By Business Editors
(c) 2005 Business Wire

DALLAS--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Aug. 16, 2005--The Pamela Worley Collection, a high-end iron furniture and accessory line, previewed the company's 2006 collection at the Dallas International Gift & Home Accessories Market at the World Trade Center, and was honored with the prestigious Design Innovation Creativity and Excellence (D.I.C.E.) award. The award, which recognizes outstanding new products announced at the design show, is only given to a handful of participants. This has special meaning to the designers and owners of the collection, Pamela Worley-Thoreson and her business partner, Linda Kay Jones, to win an award for the firm's debut collection.

Best described as fin de siecle-inspired iron furniture and accessories for the contemporary manor home, the Pamela Worley Collection was born out of Worley-Thoreson's love of European detail. Since one-of-a-kind European antiques are hard to find, she moved into designing and manufacturing a line of tables, chairs, screens, candle sticks and sconces. Each piece is filled with architectural detail and eloquence.
