THE PAMELA WORLEY 2006 COLLECTION SHOWN AT THE HIGH POINT INTERNATIONAL HOME FURNISHING MARKET

HIGH POINT, NC (booth Showplace #1633) (October 17, 2005) – The Pamela Worley Collection, a high-end classically inspired iron furniture and accessory line, will be showcasing the company's 2006 collection at the High Point International Home Furnishing Market on October 18 - 26. Placed in booth #1633 in the main floor of the Showplace building, the 2006 collection is the first from designer, Pamela Worley.

The Pamela Worley Collection includes quality pieces with a European charm, antiquity and flair. The line features a rich assortment of tables, chairs, screens, bar carts and sconces as well decorating accessories. Her new beds will be debuting at the High Point show.

"We are excited to be exhibiting at the High Point International Home Furnishing Market," said Worley. "We feel this is the perfect show to highlight the depth, versatility and quality of my new design collection."

Launched in March of 2005, the Pamela Worley Collection has made tremendous strides since the company's first show. The line won a design award (D.I.C.E.) and has since been picked up by the Gabler Group.

For more information on the collection please visit the company's Web site at www.pamelaworley.com.
